

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

CANDYCE MARTIN 1999
IRREVOCABLE TRUST,

Petitioner,

No. C 08-5150 PJH

v.

ORDER

THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Respondent.

The court is in receipt of petitioner's motion for relief from nondispositive pretrial order of a magistrate judge. The necessary brevity of petitioner's motion, and the underlying magistrate judge's ruling in the form of a minute order, require the court to allow for the filing of an opposition from respondent to the instant motion, before resolving petitioner's request.

Accordingly, respondent is instructed to file a response to petitioner's motion, spanning no more than 5 pages, no later than May 2, 2011. Once respondent's opposition is filed, the court will thereafter take plaintiff's motion under submission.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: April 25, 2011

PHYLLIS J. HAMILTON
United States District Judge